their six years' residence in Washington has taken a prominent part in social life at the National Capital.

Mrs. Robert W. Patterson left Washington yesterday for a ten days' visit to Ormond, Fla.

Mrs. Charles McChord, wife of the Interstate Commissioner, and Miss Margaret McChord, entertain a dancing class on Wednesday nights throughout Lent, the members thereof being prominent debutantes of this and last year and a number of young army and navy officers and unmarried diplomats. Miss Margaret Wilson was one of the guests last Wednesday night.

Mrs. McChord's residence in Connecticut avenue is one of the most attractive in Washington, and a ballroom is one of its most charming architectural features. Mrs. McChord and her popular young daughter are counted among Washington's most delightful hostesses.

Miss Julia C. Calhoun, who has been spending most of the winter in Washington, has returned to her home in New York.

The Duke and Duchess de Richelieu, the latter formerly Miss Eleanor Wise, of Baltimore, have arrived in Washington and are stopping at the Shoreham.

The beautiful portrait of Miss Julia Williams, daughter of Senator and Mrs. John Sharp Williams, recently painted by Miss Hattie Burdette, is attracting many visitors to Miss Burdette's studio, in G street. Miss Williams, who is less interested in social life than her younger sister, Miss Sallie Williams, has the same lovely blonde coloring that has made the latter noted since her debut last year.

Miss Burdette has been commissioned to paint the portrait of Senator Williams, the fund for which the Democratic members of the House subscribed when he left the House for the Senate.

Washington Camp, Sons of Confederate Veterans, will give a dance Tuesday evening at Confederate Home, 1222 Vermont avenue northwest.

In the receiving line will be J. R. Price, commandant of the camp; Miss Etta Louise Taggart, Mrs. William T. Sure Way to Regain Robust Bloom of Youth

A smooth, velvety-soft skin, with a delicate peach-like bloom, is one of the creator's most exquisite works. When the first blush of youth is over, this beautiful tint and satiny lustre are rarely seen. How to preserve them—this is the question. Famous beauty experts abroad long ago discovered that ordinary mercurized soaps actually give a new surface to the skin, restoring that marvelous girlish color and softness in a remarkable manner. In essence of this wax, procurable at any drug store, will be smeared on at night like cold cream and washed off in the morning.

To remove wrinkles, or delay their formation, a face bath made by dissolving 1 oz. powdered axceline in 4 pt. water, washed, will be found wonderfully efficacious. This tones up relaxed skin, causing it to remain firm and smooth.

MRS. COLVILLE BARCLAY. Wife of the consul of the British Embassy, who is taking a prominent part in the social life of the National Capital.

CHEVY CHASE.

Mrs. Harry Dodge, of Philadelphia, who has been the guest of Mrs. William L. Macture, has left for her home.

Mrs. Charles M. Thompson is entertaining her sister, Miss Jessie Holbrook, of Chicago.

Mrs. W. W. Page returns today from a visit to Mrs. George Covert in Western New York.

Mrs. M. Barry Hopper was hostess on Wednesday afternoon for the Woman's Club.

The handsome residence of Mrs. S. S. Terry was the scene of a joint recital on Wednesday evening by the students in stringed instruments of Mrs. Ella C. Mooney and the pupils in singing and elocution of Mrs. Emily Freigh Barnes.

The Pettini Mandolin Club played three selections—"After the Review" (Payne), "Barcarolle" (Tales of Hoffman), and "Sogno" (Liszt). Other musical numbers were a mandolin and harp duet, "The Heart of a Rose," by Miss Glennie Tomlinson and Prof. Penella, and a duet, "En Soudain" (Tetani), by Mrs. Ella C. Mooney and Prof. Penella.

The following songs were rendered: "Dear Love, Remember Me" (Marshall) and "May Calling" (Denza), by Miss Ellen Kalkstrom; Missetta's "Waltz Song" (La Boheme), Miss Rhea Levy.

Recitations were given by Misses Effie Kountz and Elizabeth Agee, Mrs. E. F. Barnes and Mr. Clarence Rubens.

The most interesting feature of the evening was the acting of seven scenes from "As You Like It" in costume by Misses Dorothy Terry, Blanche Levy, and Elizabeth Agee, and Messrs. Clarence Rubens, Dwight Terry, and John J. Keane. The numbers and characters were well taken and showed fine ability, both on the part of the performers and dactyls. The dining-room, used as the stage, was decorated with trees and plants to represent the Forest of Arden.
